

It is shocking to hear that Sinclair Broadcasting is planning to air anti-Kerry material only days before the election. The airwaves belong to the people, with management by the FCC. Such blatantly partisan programming is an example of why ownership of media should not be concentrated.

Please take Sinclair's actions into account when it comes time to renew their license. Don't make it an automatic renewal.

Sincerely yours,

Freda J. Miller